

Casa Poveste – The Story House

The park is accesible to all people to whom the phisical and mental abilities allow to them to access and go through the different elements of the park, while respecting the rules and regulations.

1. These rules need to be read by all that will access the park.
2. Going through the park is within your own responsibility upon reading the rules and regulation as well as attending the induction session. In the case of minors (under 18), the consent is given by the parent or legal guardian.
3. The park equipment must be utilised just in the way it was explained by the instructor. The equipment is not transferable.
4. Every single person going through the park must be present during the equipment utilisation explanations as well as the rules and regulation induction.
5. The security hooks must be permanetly utilised. The hook change one by one (detach from security cable and attach to the next one first hook and then the second one).
6. If you have any any question please ask the instructor at any point.
7. Please do not overload the elements. 1 person per element and 2 people on a platform.
8. The participants must have a minumum of 12 years and 1.5 metres hight for the adult route. The children route depends on the physical abilities and it is decided by the instructor if he/she can access the park.
9. The management team can and will exclude from the park (with no money return) any person who does not respect the rules and regulations of the park.

10. The management can and will stop any park activities in the case of strong wind, rain, storms, fog, hailing and blizzard.
11. People under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs will not be allowed into the park
12. The participants must have health insurance.
13. Damaging the park equipment, due to not respecting the instructions as well as rules and regulations will be paid by the responsible individual.
14. The access in the park represents that the individual understands and agrees to the rules and regulations of the park as well as takes full responsibility of his/her actions.